Subject: City Council Update

Outside of reports, we really have only two subjects to vote on next Tuesday. The first action item is to consider approving the updates to the Emergency Operations Plan. Most of the updates relate to updating names and numbers. There are a few updates with regard to actions. These updates are the result of the debriefing we go through after emergency events as well as table top exercises.

The next three action items are concerning the development of the land that lies between Health Center Parkway and Professional Circle into an assisted living/memory care facility. Darrin Miller and Matt Miller of D23 are the sellers of the property and Randy Rexroat of Rexroat Building Services (a Dallas firm) is the builder.

That really is about it. Things are moving along smoothly as of this moment.
